

Homiletics Workshop - 2014: Syllabus

Schedule

Week one: Developing teaching outlines from the text

Week two: Teaching delivery & other elements of effective teaching

Week three, four and five September 3, & September 10: Teaching Workshops

Teaching Assignment

Two 15-minute original teachings on assigned passages from Philippians:

- The teachings should be given as to your home group.
- Assume there are non-Christians present.
- You need not teach the entire passage, but you are responsible for proper interpretation and application.
- Limit your teaching notes to one side of an 8" x 5" sheet of paper.
- Bring your own video camera.

Written Assignments

Due the second week:

- Inductive overview of the book of Philippians & “Audience Analysis Worksheet”

Due the week of each teaching:

Teachers

- A copy of the “Homiletic Worksheet” for your teaching
- A copy of your actual teaching notes

Non-teachers

- Participate in giving constructive feedback to each teacher.
- Fill out a “Peer Feedback Sheet” for each teacher and (after the discussion) pass it to the teacher.

Due the week following each teaching:

- A copy of your own evaluation of your teaching, after viewing yourself on video. Don’t simply fill out a critique sheet for your teaching. Rather, interact with the feedback from the instructor and other students. How do you agree/disagree with their feedback? What other areas of strength/weakness can you identify? What would you do differently the next time you teach?
- If your second teaching is Week #5, please mail your evaluation to Gary at the Xenos office.

Students should work out teaching scheduling changes between themselves in their workshop group. Direct other questions or concerns to Gary DeLashmutt (delashmuttg@xenos.org).
